

Always Running

32 2 1

Chapter 1 by Natalya Nugent

Running with snow pelting against my skin through the darkness guiding me, my shoes tapping on the black pavement. My heart is pounding and I can feel my fingers beginning to freeze. Danny is behind me. I turn back and look at him and smile in the darkness.

“Come on” I yell and I turn onto the road and I can see my house I slow and I search for him but all I see are footprints and a fresh set of tire tracks in the snow. My eyes go wide and Danny stands next to me his one hand on the small of my back and I turn away and groan shoving my hands into my face and I turn in a circle.

Chapter 2 by Natalya Nugent

I stand in the road the snow falling harder now and I'm shivering. Danny leads me up the drive. The dinning room light turns on and my Mom appears in the window. I smile and we head for the open garage. Inside the house I kick off my soaked Vans and I shed my jacket and hang it on the hook. My Mom shows up in the mudroom and leans up against the door frame.

"Nice to see you came back" she says sourly. My heart sinks and Danny looks at me with alarm in his eyes.
